Financial Aid

Financial aid is available for all students. Financial aid is provided through the regional parishes, scholarships from the St. John School Endowment Fund, Eliot Kelly Scholarship (K or 1st), Archbishop's Lenten Appeal, Friends of Catholic Education (current students) and the Knott Foundation. To be eligible for financial aid consideration, applicants must complete a Tuition Aid Data Service form (TADS), which may be submitted on line at tuitionaid.com. All TADS forms are due by April 30, 2010 to be considered for financial assistance for fall 2010. For more information, plan to attend Financial Aid Information Night date to be announced.

Friends of Catholic Education (FOCE) supports a Food Certificate program to assist parents in reducing the cost of tuition at the Catholic schools in Frederick County. To learn more about the program please contact FOCE at foce@att.net or at www.friendsofcatholiced.org.

Bus Service

Bus service is available for students traveling from the Damascus/Mt. Airy areas and from the upper Montgomery County/Urbana areas. A shuttle bus is also available to and from St. John's Catholic Prep. Fees for bus service are charged separately by St. John's Catholic Prep and route information may be obtained by calling the school directly at 301-662-4210.
